(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

With Joy, a rather strong Joy so I can barely contain it, this is a particularly exciting Full Moon with the energies in Leo, January 28, 29. However the effects of this full moon are amplifying very potent energies. It is a very good time for getting many things done. It is a very good time for planning ahead into the future. It is also a very good time for that 3rd eye center to be wide open and receptive to Wisdom of the Universe.

So I invite you to work with a simple exercise in just shaping around the Third Eye, just like you are adjusting it a little bit, like you might focus a lens or something. Then when you can feel the corresponding energy there, just begin to widen it with your hands as though you've got a beacon of energy coming out of your third eye.

Now, a couple of cautions. I put one on Twitter and then I do it in the Forecast. So there is the "2010 First Quarter Forecast", audio or transcript available on the site if you want a more detailed running day by day of what is upcoming.

In this particular full moon is one in which elective surgeries or procedures of some sort could actually make for blood thinning or too much blood coming out or difficulties with the body coagulating. So hence if you've got anything scheduled, I would say, maybe postpone it past February 3rd.

Alright, so working with the energies of the Full Moon in Leo allows us to also begin to balance the way that the solar activity reverberates in the human body. So I am hoping to see many of you just feel as though a breath of fresh air has settled in and things are stabilizing now.

Stay on your toes regarding finances and things of that nature because there will be some tricky steps coming up ahead.

Alright, dear ones, as always, thank you and my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
