(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

All right. Today’s date is September 13, 2007 and our topic pertains to activating your Life Purpose, your spirituality and your Life Purpose. So, we will work with another exercise, bringing in a blue violet light, a beautiful column of blue violet light, coming in from above, connecting right into the top of the head. Now inside the head, I want you to imagine something like an abacus, a device for counting: beads being moved left, right, in rows and what not.

We want this sort of calculation image inside the head where literally Divine Light is connecting with your personal formula to calculate your Divine Purpose or your Life’s Mission. And, if you are sensitive, you may sense a sort of click, click, click, or a different kind of energy happening inside the head. An audible awareness of the spirit realm is always desirable and particularly so when you are dealing with the Ascended Masters, the Angelic kingdom, etc.

Now, when you are dealing with the lower psychic realms, that is something that you do not want to be audible, in fact you don’t even want the contact. So as we connect in here with your Divine Mission, your life purpose, that blue violet light coming through the head and then sort of calculation going on, a sort of calibration, to bring into your conscious awareness why you are here, what lessons that you have and how they factor into your purpose.

Now you really always, like say maybe your purpose is to be a healer, then maybe one of your challenges is going to be about self-healing, or about being conscientious about how others view you as a healer, etc. Maybe you are a teacher, one of your life lessons, one of your issues may be fear of speaking, fear of being seen in public, being self conscious about how others perceive you and whether or not they like you, etc.

So literally whatever is your Divine Mission, whatever you are here to accomplish, is connected, sort of on the reverse side of the same coin, to what you need to learn in order to accomplish your purpose. So think in terms of:

“If I know already what my lessons are and I flip the coin over, what is my mission?” Or
“If I already know my mission, I know I am doing what I incarnated to do, I flip the coin over, what would be my lesson?”

So I leave you with that to ponder on and also to acknowledge that there is an acceleration now. All of the light workers and the world servers are feeling a bit antsy like “My Goodness, I need to hurry up and get out of that gate and start running” or “I have taken the meandering path, now I need the fast track” or somehow you are feeling an urgency because that is what is reflected in the Heavens. So everything sort of coming to a head.

Now in the spiritual realm, there is no time, there is no space, so allow yourself to move at the pace of spirit, at the same time addressing those things that affect you at the spiritual level and at the level of your service from the soul’s perspective.

All right dear ones. As always, thank you and my love to you.
