(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. Just a few general notes. This Thanksgiving falls on a New Moon which is always potent. It also happens to be in Sagittarius which kind of expands things and is fiery.

Then we have an eclipse on top of that. So we have a solar eclipse. So the vibratory patterns for the weekend are pretty much 'stick close to home'. If you are traveling watch very carefully and I'm especially thinking water travel. It's not as safe. Maybe short car trips but try to keep it minimal. That will be the most enjoyable way to spend the energies.

And then in respect to the original inhabitants of the USA and Canada and Mexico I say again, just respect the native peoples, giving thanks to them and their families as well.

And then inwardly the water prayer, Dr Emoto's Water Prayer:

I am sorry.
Please forgive me.
Thank you.
I love you.

And kind of keep putting that energy out to the ethers. Say it to yourselves. Say it to the ethers. Say it to the water molecules, in the air, etc. That's a very good vibration as well for this particular time period.

Now financial things are looking very interesting. As you probably noticed it is a roller coaster. The Spiritual Hierarchy is still seeing collapse at some point and probably a sharp drop off. So again, think in terms of how can I best protect my money or my resources, wherever you stand in that picture or maybe you're not in that picture at all.

Still think in terms of what is my best strategy during this time period and be prepared to do whatever that calls for.

Then I'd say New Moon, I like that dark moon just as much as Full Moon for different reasons. So when the Moon is dark, essentially you can bury old things for good. So for example, you might write down a pattern that you are ready to release or a behavior that you are ready to stop or whatnot and then bury it in the ground. If you live in a high rise or something, bury it in some potting soil or ceremonially burn it in a very safe way so it can't cause any harm to yourself or to the building. That sort of thing.

Just really focus on what you want to let go of. Once that feels released, focus upon what you would like to bring in instead. Now it might be peace of mind, a more peaceful environment, in other words you're going to give up a lot of stressful things and you're going to trade it up for some meditation time or relaxation; time to read books, time to sleep in in the morning. Or maybe you're going to trade something that's a drama in your life and you're going to replace it with serenity or something of that nature.

So the encouragement is to consciously focus on something, especially this New Moon, that you want to release and what you would like to replace it with.

Alright. In gratitude I AM and as always, I thank you and send my love to you,

Djwhal Khul
